GERMANY AND DENMARK. A DANISH VERSION OF THE GERMAN REPLY.

COPENHAGEN, Wednesday, Oct. 21, 1874. A Hadersleben (Danish) newspaper denies the statement that the attitude of Germany toward Denmark relative to the recent expedition of the Schleswig is conciliatory. VIOLENT STORM IN GREAT BRITAIN. LOSS OF LIFE AND GREAT DAMAGE TO SHIPPING AND OTHER PROPERTY.

LONDON, Wednesday, Oct. 21, 1874. A heavy storm of wind and rain prevailed last night and to-day throughout the north of England and in Scotland. All the rivers in that section are swollen, the railway and telegraph lines interrupted, trees were uprooted in all directions, and chimneys and houses damaged. At Stockton-on-Tees a vessel was wrecked, and one person was killed.

At Scotland, 20 vessels broke adrift in the harbor, which is shallow and exposed, all of which were more or less damaged, and one totally wrecked. Three persons were drowned at Deal and at Sunderland. The Bremer steamship, lately launched and lying at Hull, dragged her anchors and ran aground, but floated off, and is now adrift in the Humber. Tugs have gone to her assistance.

LATER.—Additional dispatches have come to hand showing that the sale was far more severe and destructive than was indicated by the first reports. The steamship Chusan, from Glasgow for Shanghai, was driven ashore near Ardrossan, and is going to pieces. Fourteen of the crew were washed overboard and drowned. The persons left on board, some 50 in number, took to the rigging, where they yet remain, in full sight from shore. Efforts are being made to save them. Several lives were also lost in England. Reports from Hartlepool, Shields, Hull, and other ports and from inland towns bring intelligence of great damage to shipping, factories, and other property.

LONDON, Thursday, Oct. 22, 5 a. m. Seventeen of the crew of the steamer Chusan, ashore at Ardrossan, were drowned. The survivors have been rescued from the rigging. The steamer is a total loss.

The brig E. C. White has been lost off the Isle of Wight, and four of her people drowned.

AFFAIRS IN JAPAN. THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE—THE DEMAND FOR THE OPENING OF THE EMPIRE TO FOREIGNERS—THE FORMOSA QUESTION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—The steamer Japan brings Yokohama dates to September 29.

The arrangements for diplomatic missions have been slightly changed. Nyene Kagronow goes to London instead of Paris. Samshina, now in France, will remain as long as his health will allow. Aoki Sizo, formerly Chargé at Berlin, is promoted to the rank of Envoy.

Yokohama goes to Washington.

Chili has been requested to contribute to the International Exposition to be held there in 1875.

The French Government at present takes the lead in pushing the demand for the opening of the entire Empire. The correspondence shows a vehement disposition to wrest concession from Japan in spite of all remonstrances.

The Mikado gave a breakfast on the 22d of September to all foreign diplomats at his own residence. This was the first entertainment at which the sovereign has freely mingled with foreign guests and received them at his table.

The latest reviews of troops yet seen in Yedo took place the 19th in one of the suburbs of Yedo. Ten thousand infantry, artillery and cavalry were inspected by the Mikado and his uncle.

Affairs between Japan and China remain precisely as they were. Yokohama papers contain positive announcements of war and equally positive announcements of a peaceful settlement. The highest patriotic spirit is exhibited throughout the country. Notices have been offered a large part of their property to the Government, and the mercantile class has expressed its desire to serve both by contributions and in the field in case war should be declared.

THE SAFE BURGLARY CONSPIRACY.

PLEASE READ REGARDING THE LEGALITY OF THE GRAND JURY MAKING THE INDICTMENTS—SEVERAL JURORS THIS MORNING OBTAINED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The Criminal Court this morning resumed the consideration of the Safe Burglary Conspiracy case. Mr. Hinkle, counsel for Whitley, read the first plea in abatement raised by him yesterday, to the effect that the Grand Jury which found the alleged true bill against his client, Whitley, was not legally constituted, the jurors not having been selected in accordance with the law.

Judge Humphreys said he would treat this plea as a mere technicality, because of its duplicity, and because it did not present a single question upon which a direct issue on the demurrer could be held. Other pleas were read questioning the mode of drawing jurors, and asserting that the law required the summoning of 23 grand jurors, whereas only 19 were in attendance. The Court sustained the demurrer against the plea on the ground that the plea did not set forth that only 19 persons were summoned. The law did not require that every person serving as a grand juror should appear. If this were so, the Court could never have a full Grand Jury. Several of the points raised were presented for argument, including the question that three of the grand jurors were not legally qualified, and did not present a single question upon which a direct issue on the demurrer could be held.

Assistant Attorney-General Hill said he would make his professional reputation on the question that the law did not require jurors to be taxpayers. He expressed the anxiety of the Government to proceed with the trial of these cases without unnecessary delay. The Judge remarked that the law required every accused person to be tried according to the forms of law, and as far as possible to be tried by a jury of his peers. The Judge said the issue was joined as to the drawing from a box of names of persons to serve as jurors. The names were drawn by lot, and the names of the jurors were drawn by lot. The names of the jurors were drawn by lot, and the names of the jurors were drawn by lot.

Mr. Davidson for Harrington and Williams, with the consent of Hinkle, amended the plea so that it set forth that the Clerk of the Court did not, in the presence of the Commissioners, break the seal of the box publicly and draw therefrom the names of the jurors. The Judge said the record would show, when read, that the accused had been arraigned and pleaded not guilty. The jury was appointed, and the trial was begun.
